

Sea Life Melbourne Aquarium

Opened 2000

The stunning Croc Lair Exhibit is one of 12 new zones of discovery at SEA LIFE Melbourne Aquarium. From three spectacular viewing levels, come face-to-face with Pinjarra – one of Australia's largest saltwater crocodiles. Croc Lair features an unrivalled viewing experience; a 360 degree, jaw-dropping encounter.

Flinders Street Station

Opened in 1910

The famous landmark recorded 93 million passenger movements in 2011-2012. It was the first railway station to open in Australia in 1854. And the first steam train in Australia pulled into the station.

Eureka Skydeck

Opened 2006

Nothing you have ever experienced will prepare you for the awe-inspiring views of Melbourne from the Southern Hemisphere's highest viewing platform with the world's only Edge Experience.

Enterprize Ship

Replica built in 1997

John Pascoe Fawcner owned the original Enterprize, used for settlement of the Port Phillip area. Captain John Lancey led her crew and passengers up the Yarra River, where they set up the first European settlement on a site on the north bank - thus founding Melbourne on 30 August 1835.

Bunjil

In Aboriginal mythology, Bunjil the eagle is a creator deity, culture hero and ancestral being. It is believed by the Kulin and other Indigenous peoples that, in the Dreamtime, Bunjil took shelter in a cave located in the part of Gariwerd that is now known as the Black Range Scenic Reserve - today a popular tourist attraction.

Pie in the Sky, Melbourne Showgrounds

Built in 1977 Heritage listed in 1999

Popular meeting point at the Royal Melbourne Show.
